

Yang Repeats – Record Fund Raising

July 21, 2021

Sook Hee Yang from Colonial Country Club won the Moore County Women's Amateur at Forest Creek Golf Club – North on July 21, 2021. Yang won the previous MCWA held at CCNC in 2019, no event was held in 2020.

The MCWA has a new format. The Champion is the player with the over-all low gross score. The Friendship Champion, Ellen Connors from Pinewild having the over-all low net score.

The first round of completion on July 20th was played through a persistent rain and nobody quit; especially Susan Clark from Seven Lakes who had a hole in one on the 4th Hole. They were rewarded with a cool and pleasant second round resulting in many improved scores.

It was a record fundraising year for MCWA's benefactor Friend to Friend. Generous donations came from sponsors, two remarkable funds drives from Pinewild and Forest Creek, entry donations, and raffle prizes.

Anne Friesen, Friend to Friend Executive Director was overwhelmed by the nearly $13,000 brought in. She spoke during the post-event luncheon saying these funds would go directly to Butterfly Cottage, the new housing under construction to aid victims of human trafficking.

Special thanks went to the consistent title sponsor, Leith Chrysler Dodge & Honda, Aberdeen. Complete details about the MCWA, Friend to Friend, and the sponsors are located on the website www.MooreCountyWomensAmateur.com.

Final Results: Champion: Sook Hee Yang; Friendship Champion: Ellen Connors; First Flight: Low Gross, Jenny Kitchen – Low Net, Ann Watkins – 2nd Low Net, Amy Rich; Second Flight: Low Gross, Libby Lewallen – Low Net, Marjory Leidy – 2nd Low Net, Laurie Fabian; Flight 3: Low Gross, Dawn Crawley – Low Net, Mary Woodford – 2nd Low Net, Lynn Dawson

Sook Hee Yang - Ellen Connors

Image provided by Rita Roberts

Sook Hee Yang, Champion – Ellen Connors, Friendship Champion

##30##